Nestled in the heart of the Catalan mountains, close to Andorra and Spain, the Regional Natural Park of the Catalan Pyrenees, between Cerdagne and Capcir, unfolds in the superlative: a preserved “Altiplano” with exceptional sunlight, unique high-altitude landscapes where mouflon and chamois thrive.

The multitude of mountain lakes makes the beauty of the region, while near the villages, sulfurous hot springs have delighted people for centuries. For example, in Dorres, you will have the opportunity to enjoy its outdoor natural baths. An excursion into the Eyne Nature Reserve will allow you to glimpse a condensed version of all that the Pyrenees offer in terms of natural habitat diversity. Then, the inevitable sites of Les Bouillouses and Camporells, dotted with lakes in the heart of plateaus and high-altitude forests, will delight lovers of wide open spaces. Meanwhile, a trip into Spanish Catalonia will enchant everyone with a completely different experience! In short, a varied stay where forests, mountain pastures, plateaus, lakes, gorges, valleys, and summits will mark your steps.

Finally, to make your stay in the Catalan land a true success, return each evening to the hotel ideally located in the village of Saillagouse, where you can enjoy a relaxation area, sauna, pool, and particularly delicious cuisine.

•PROGRAM

Day 1: Start of the stay in FOIX

Meeting at 3:30 PM at Foix train station (09) and transfer to Saillagouse (1h45). Check-in at your accommodation in a  hotel with relaxation area, fitness, sauna, and pool. Briefing on the stay.

NB: For those arriving by car, it is possible to go directly to the accommodation: Hôtel Planes, Place de Cerdagne, Saillagouse (tel: 04.68.04.72.08).

Day 2: Tour of the old Catalan villages of Garrotxes

Five villages with typical stone houses dot the small territory of the Garrotxes (the rocky lands). A wild territory, but also a land of livestock... in short, a condensed version of the Regional Natural Park of the Catalan Pyrenees; one could not dream of a better introduction to this stay!

• Distance: 12 km, duration: approximately 4h30, ascent: +500 m, descent: -500 m, transfer: 20 min

Day 3: Plateaus and ponds of the classified site of Les Bouillouses

In the heart of this vast area of glacial lakes and wild expanses, each of our guides has their favorite route, their secret spot away from the busy trails, their favorite pond... So, let's not reveal anything and keep the surprise of a tailor-made itinerary!

• Distance: 17 km, duration: approximately 6h, ascent: +500 m, descent: -500 m, transfer: 40 min

Day 4: Sierra de Cadí or Estanys de Malniu in Spanish Catalonia

Defined by purists as the Catalan Rockies or Dolomites, this mountain range will enchant us with the gentleness of its trail and the diversity of its flora, including the Ramonda, an endemic flower of the Pyrenees. Arrival at the "Prat de Cadí" (the Cadí meadow), used as summer pasture for the valley's herds, will serve as a stop to share a friendly moment around Catalan specialties.

• Distance: 10 km, duration: approximately 5h, ascent: +600 m, descent: -600 m, transfer: 1h

Day 5: Lakes of Camporells or Étang du Lanoux

Journée sur des sentiers d'altitude à la découverte du magnifique site des Camporells et ses nombreux lacs. A travers l'un des plus beaux paysages de montagne qu'offre le Parc des Pyrénées Catalanes, sur les hauts plateaux de Cerdagne et Capcir. Il sera ensuite temps de quitter à regret ce petit coin de paradis tout en profitant d'un dernier beau point de vue depuis la Serra de Mauri.

- Distance : 12km, durée : environ 5h, dénivelé plus : +500m, dénivelé moins : -500m, transfert : 45min

Day 6: The Eyne Nature Reserve

Let's explore the Eyne Nature Reserve, a preserved and protected area, a true mosaic of natural habitats. In the heart of the aptly named "Valley of Flowers", your guide will introduce you to an incredibly varied flora and ever-changing landscapes: hooked pine forests, riverbanks, heathlands, meadows and high plateaus, scree...

- Distance: 12 km, duration: approximately 5h, ascent: +600 m, descent: -600 m, transfer: 15 min

Day 7: End of the stay

Transfer from Saillagouse to Foix train station after breakfast (arrival at the station around 10:45 AM).

The programs have been prepared according to the latest information available at the time of writing: unforeseen events may always occur, and situations beyond our control may alter the schedule. On site, our guides are the best judges and may modify the itinerary depending on the weather or if the group's safety requires it.

•TO BRING IN YOUR LUGGAGE

Backpack

The size of the backpack is very important and can vary depending on the type of trip:

- For a hike without carrying luggage: minimum 30L
- For a hike with light or partial carrying: minimum 50L
- For a hike with full carrying: minimum 60L

It should contain:

- Bottom of the bag (rainwear, warm clothing, spare t-shirt, sunglasses, sunscreen, first aid kit, picnic necessities, personal items, etc.)
- Picnic lunch of the day (bring a plastic container)
- Sufficient water (minimum 1.5 L bottle)

Footwear

One of the most important elements. Shoes must be comfortable, waterproof, and breathable, with good ankle support. If buying a new pair, try them before your trip. Do not choose too small a size, as your feet tend to swell. For short hikes: flexible trekking shoes with a good sole and heel support. For mountain hikes over 4 hours: high-cut shoes with a fairly rigid sole. Shoes that have been stored too long may be compromised; lifespan is 2–5 years. Soles may detach and seams may tear over time.

Specific clothing for hiking

- Waterproof windbreaker (e.g., Gore-Tex)
- Fleece jacket or sweater
- Hiking pants, shorts, t-shirts (prefer breathable materials)
- Spare clothes and personal laundry
- Swimsuit and towel
- Early and late season: thin gloves and a hat for high-altitude hikes

Sleeping

- Earplugs

Picnic

- Cutlery (fork, folding knife)
- Minimum 1.5 L water bottle or CamelBak (more practical)

Petit matériel

- Une paire de tennis, ou de sandalettes pour le soir
- Une paire de bâtons télescopiques (facultatif)
- Lunettes et crème solaire
- Chapeau, casquette ou bob
- Appareil photo...
- Une petite trousse de toilette, avec serviette
- Une lampe de poche ou frontale
- Du papier hygiénique
- Une mini-pharmacie : médicaments personnels, Compeed pour les ampoules, élastoplaste, gaze, désinfectant, arnica en granules et aspirine en cas de petits bobos... une couverture de survie.

Small equipment

- Pair of sneakers or sandals for the evening
- Telescopic hiking poles (optional)
- Sunglasses and sunscreen
- Hat, cap, or sun hat
- Camera
- Small toiletry kit with towel
- Flashlight or headlamp
- Toilet paper
- Mini first-aid kit: personal medication, Compeed for blisters, adhesive bandages, gauze, disinfectant, arnica granules, aspirin for minor injuries, survival blanket
