Highlights

- The GR10 as the main thread
- A section of the route within the Catalan Pyrenees Natural Park
- Crossing the high Cerdan plateau
- Exploring the Bouillouses site and its many lakes
- The Mantet and Py Nature Reserves with their stunning high-altitude plateaus
- A journey under the Catalan sun

This 7th section of the Pyrenees Crossing, with the famous GR10 as its guiding thread, leaves the Ariège region to enter the Eastern Pyrenees, renowned for its sunny high-altitude plateaus. Starting from Mérens-les-Vals, you will reach the Bésines Refuge before embarking on a beautiful mountain stage with stunning lakes surrounding Puig Carlit, the majestic peak of the area, rising to 2,921 meters.

You will then arrive at the Bouillouses Lake, surrounded by numerous other lakes nestled in breathtaking landscapes of mountain pines and high-altitude meadows. The journey continues across the vast Cerdagne plateau in the heart of the Catalan Pyrenees Natural Park, featuring picturesque mountain villages and the spectacular Yellow Train that crosses the region.

Leaving the Cerdan plateau, the route gradually leads you to the Conflent region, where the landscapes take on an increasingly Mediterranean character. After a stop at the charming Carança Refuge, set in the heart of a beautiful valley, you will explore the Mantet and Py Nature Reserves. Close to Catalonia, Spain, these reserves are marked by high, desert-like plateaus reminiscent of the Andean altiplanos, rising towards the renowned Pic du Canigou. This iconic peak overlooks the spa town of Vernet-les-Bains, the final destination of your journey.

• PROGRAM

Day 1: From Mérens-les-Vals to Bésines Refuge

Meet your guide at 9 AM in Mérens-les-Vals at the starting point of the hike. From Mérens, you will gradually leave Haute-Ariège and head towards Capcir, with a classic Pyrenean stage featuring deep valleys and a mountain pass. A long ascent along the Nabre valley and stream will lead you to the Porteille des Bésines at 2,333 meters above sea level. You will then descend towards the Etang des Bésines and its staffed refuge. From the refuge terrace, the view of the lake and the nearby Pic Pédros is stunning.

- Distance: 9km, duration: 4h45, ascent: +1300m, descent: -300m

Day 2: From Bésines Refuge to Bouillouses Lake

From Bésines Refuge, the route crosses the Coume d'Anyell pass, leaving Ariège for the Pyrénées-Orientales. Below the pass, you'll see the Lanoux Lake, the largest lake in the French Pyrenees, covering 1.71 km². After skirting the lake, the path rises towards the Porteille de la Grave and descends onto the Cerdagne plateau. Enjoy a lovely descent to the Pla and the Têt River sources at 2,050 meters, flowing into the vast Bouillouses Lake.

- Distance: 16km, duration: 5h45, ascent: +650m, descent: -700m

Day 3: From Bouillouses Lake to Planès

Starting from Bouillouses, a paradise for hikers known as the "Little Canada of the Pyrenees," this pleasant transition stage weaves through plateaus, mountain lakes, and state forests. After reaching Bolquère, near the famous Font Romeu resort, you will cross the vast Cerdagne high plateau, a landscape unique within the Pyrenees. Finally, you will arrive at Planès, a beautiful village with its Romanesque church, the only one in Europe with a trefoil plan.

- Distance: 20km, duration: 6h, ascent: +250m, descent: -750m

Day 4: From Planès to Carança Refuge

The topographic profile of this stage resembles a roller coaster, with each descent followed by a pass or high plateau to cross. Today, the ascent to Pla de Cédeilles offers a beautiful walk through the Planès forest. The balcony descent towards the Riberola valley is equally stunning. Then, you'll climb to the broad Mitja pass (2,367 m), an exceptional viewpoint towards the Cerdagne plateau, Capcir, and the iconic Pic du Carlit. A final descent will lead you to the Carança Refuge.

- Distance: 15km, duration: 6h30, ascent: +1200m, descent: -900m

Day 5: From Carança Refuge to Mantet

From the charming Carança Refuge, a traverse followed by a wooded climb leads to the Col del Pal, offering panoramic views, particularly of the Canigou massif to the east. You then enter the heart of the Mantet Nature Reserve, part of the Catalan Nature Reserves network (7 in total). After descending into the Alemany valley, you will climb again to reach the village of Mantet, with its beautiful stone houses.

- Distance: 10km, duration: 4h45, ascent: +650m, descent: -950m

Day 6: From Mantet to Vernet-les-Bains

Today, you will quickly reach the Mantet pass with stunning views of the Py Nature Reserve. The Mediterranean ambiance becomes increasingly pronounced, particularly in the vegetation. A descent along the Campelles stream leads to the village of Py. From there, a balcony path above the Rotja valley takes you to the Goa Tower, perched on a small natural platform offering splendid views of the Canigou peak and the Haut Conflent region. A ridge path followed by a forest descent will bring you to Vernet-les-Bains.

- Distance: 15km, duration: 6h, ascent: +650m, descent: -1550m

Day 7: End of the Trip in Villefranche-de-Conflent

After breakfast, you will be transferred to the Villefranche-de-Conflent train station (10 min), marking the end of your trip.

• TECHNICAL INFORMATION

Terrain Type

Hikes on well-marked trails, with varied terrain that is often rocky.

Level 3

For regular hikers in good physical condition with prior mountain hiking experience. Hikes average 6–7 hours per day with elevation gains of 700–1,000 meters, mostly on easy trails with occasional minor technical difficulties.

Note: The walking times provided are for reference only. They are average estimates based solely on active walking time, not including breaks. Depending on weather conditions, the hiking pace may vary, with elevation gains ranging from +300 m to +500 m per hour.

Guiding

The hike is supervised by a certified mountain guide (BE AMM) specialized in the region.

Luggage & Carrying

During the hike, you will carry only your personal day items, including your picnic and sufficient water. However, for overnight stays in mountain huts on Days 1 and 4, you will need to carry your personal items required for the night (sleeping bag liner, change of clothes, toiletries). Please bring an easily transportable duffel bag for luggage transfers (see our equipment recommendations).

Your Luggage Service

Your luggage must be dropped off at the reception of your accommodation no later than 9:00 AM. It will be delivered to your next accommodation before 5:00 PM. Only one piece of luggage per person will be accepted. For logistical reasons, we ask that you limit the weight of your luggage to a maximum of 15 kg and avoid hard-shell suitcases: our logistics team and transport partners handle dozens of bags per day, often on staircases. The transporter may charge an additional fee at the end of the hike if the luggage is too heavy or too numerous.

•WHAT TO BRING AND PACK

Your Luggage Service

Your luggage must be dropped off at the reception of your accommodation no later than 9:00 AM. It will be delivered to your next accommodation before 5:00 PM. Only one piece of luggage per person will be accepted. For logistical reasons, we ask that you limit the weight of your luggage to a maximum of 15 kg and avoid hard-shell suitcases: our logistics team and transport partners handle dozens of bags per day, often on staircases. The transporter may charge an additional fee at the end of the hike if the luggage is too heavy or too numerous.

Your day backpack

The size of your bag varies upon the type of activity.

- For a walk without portage : 30L minimum
- For a walk with partial portage : 50L minimum
- For a walk with portage : 60L minimum

Whatever activity you participate in, you should always carry in your rucksack:

- Rainwear, warm clothing, spare T-shirt, sunglasses, sun cream, first aid kit, picnic kit, personal items, etc.)
- Picnic lunch of the day (bring a plastic box)
- Sufficient water (minimum 1.5 litre water bottle)

Walking Boots

The type of boot depends upon the activities you take part in however they are one of your most important items. They should be comfortable, waterproof and breathable. For the best protection we advise ankle boots.

We recommend our young walkers to wear flexible walking boots with a good sole and back.

For mountain walking for more than 4 hours long we recommend a boot with a fairly ridged sole.

If you need to buy a new pair of boots, we advise you wear them in before the start of your holiday. Don't wear boots that are too small because feet have a tendency to swell up. Be careful with your shoes that have been left in the wardrobe for too long. The lifespan of a shoe is 2 to 5 years. After a while the soles will come off and the seams can tear.

Clothes:

- A wind and rainproof jacket
- A thick jumper or a fleece
- Comfortable walking trousers
- Shorts, t shirts as well as breathable base layers
- Spare clothes
- Swimwear and towel
- For the start and end of season, hat and gloves suitable for GR10 walks at altitude.
